Privacy Policy — Amore Behavior & Mental Health

Effective date: November 7, 2026

Amore Behavior & Mental Health ("Amore", "we") respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains what information we collect through our website, how we use it, and your rights.

1. Information we collect

Information you provide: name, email address, phone number, and any information you include in our contact or appointment request forms.

Automatically collected information: basic browsing data (device type, pages visited, time on site) that helps us improve the website.

2. How we use your information

- To respond to your messages and appointment requests.
- To coordinate and provide our health care services.
- To improve our website and the quality of our services.
- To comply with legal and regulatory obligations.

3. Protected health information

Health information you share with us is protected under federal HIPAA law. For details on how we use and safeguard your health information, please see our Notice of Privacy Practices.

4. How we share your information

We do not sell your personal information. We share it only as needed to provide our services, with your authorization, or as required by law.

5. Information security

We apply reasonable security measures to protect your information. No system is completely secure; we recommend not sending sensitive information by unencrypted email.

6. Your rights

You may request access to, correction, or deletion of your personal information by writing to info@amorementalhealthcorp.com or calling 786-803-8826.

7. Minors

Our website is not directed to children under 13. Health care services for minors require the consent of a parent or legal guardian.

8. Changes to this policy

We may update this Privacy Policy at any time. The current version will always be posted on this page with its effective date.
